

LPR (La Palette Rouge) is the red pallet pooling specialist with 25 years' experience in the fast-moving consumer goods sector. With our innovative pooling systems for pallets, our unique personal approach, LPR has assumed a leading position in Europe. Handling more than 100 million pallets a year, we provide a full pallet service for all parties in the chain: customers, manufacturers, distributors, and retailers.

We cherish our corporate values, encouraging team spirit, personal growth, respect, entrepreneurship and innovation. LPR is a division of Euro Pool Group, the largest logistics service provider of reusable standard packaging in Europe. LPR employs more than 300 people in 9 countries.

We are looking for a

Business Analyst Europe (M/F) Permanent (Full-Time) – Balma

PURPOSE OF THE JOB

Within Controlling Division department and under the Business Controller Division management your main functions consist in :

- Be support during monthly closing process to the European subsidiaries
- Collect and consolidate data's from the 9 European subsidiaries
- Analyze monthly results vs. Forecast, Budget and previous year
- Update different monthly headquarter's reports (sales, logistics costs, overheads ...)
- Participate to the Budget & Forecast processes
- Prepare short-term activities forecast

PROFILE

Master degree specialized in controlling with a first positive experience in a similar function, ideally in logistics sector.

Good ability with IT systems, you have a strong experience in Excel tool.

Dynamic and curious, you are recognized for your rigor, a strong analysis capability and good relationship.

Excellent verbal and written communication skills in English.

CONTACT:

For further information or to apply, please contact recrutement@eurheaconseil.fr, we are looking forward to receiving your application.